JOURNEY & MILESTONES

An incredible journey of evolution, achievements and experiences.

1981

The very beginning

In September 1981, Sajjan Dokania embarked on a journey with an idea to beautify interior spaces. Durian was formed with a small set-up in retail & wholesale trading of Plywood.

1985

First plywood manufacturing facility

After continuous success in the trading industry, the quest to become independent continued as Durian ventured into plywood production, opening the doors to their first manufacturing facility in Palghar.

1988

Timber-peeling plant springs up

To ensure that there were no compromises on quality at every step, a timber-peeling plant was installed at Wada in Maharashtra.

1991

Demand increases, a new facility emerges

With unparalleled quality of production, the demand for Durian's plywood saw an immense spike within 4 years. This led to the creation of 4 plywood manufacturing units in Palghar by 1991.

1995

India's 1st Decorative Veneer manufacturing unit

After traveling the world to understand products, raw materials and technologies, in May, 1995, Sajjan Dokania decided to set up India's very first decorative veneer manufacturing facility in Palghar, Maharashtra.

1998

Exploring new avenues with Doors

Durian forayed into manufacturing PVC for Door Skin And Moduled Doors with a state-of-the-art facility at Wada, Maharashtra.

1999

Durian's 1st furniture showroom

Realising that there's a gap in the retail furniture sector, Durian established an exclusive Home Furniture showroom in Ahmedabad, which displayed a range of specially curated imported home furniture. After seeing success with the first store, Durian entered the metropolitan city of Mumbai to launch its largest flagship store in 2001.

2003

Introduction of office furniture

On popular demand from its customers, Durian added a whole new range of office furniture to its retail division.

2005

The start of Durian projects and institutional sales

With rising popularity amongst high profile clients, architects, PSUs and MNCs, Durian started highly customised services with its years of experience, knowledge and leadership.

2006

The year of Modular Furniture

Durian embarked on a journey to set up its first modular furniture facility that saw the beginning of modular workstation production.

Also the year of laminates

Soon after, in December, the brand set up cutting-edge decorative laminates facility with sophisticated machineries in Ahmedabad. With increase in production capabilities, Durian started exporting laminates.

2007

The horizon expands with Office Seating & Veneer slicing

With the runaway success and appreciation from Customers, Durian established a Seating manufacturing facility in Palghar.

With the ambition to make Durian a self-reliant manufacturing ecosystem, a veneer slicing facility in Palghar was set up.

2008

The manufacturing ecosystem continues to build with veneers and laminates.

A veneer edge bending plant was set up at Palghar.

With the rising popularity of Durian's laminates, a 2nd production line was added. Increasing its laminates line of products, a brand Cedar Lam was introduced.

2009

A new brand emerges

A new brand of laminates called IPL emerged in April.

2010

Induction of the upholstery facility.

The changing affinity of the consumers and the rising demand for branded furniture led to the establishment of Durian's upholstery facility, where a range of sofas and other upholstered products were made available.

FSC Certification

The quality of Durian products were top-notch. It was awarded with the prestigious FSC certificates.

2011

Barcoding Technology

With expansion of Durian's retail business across states, Durian became one of the leading interior solutions providers across India. A 3rd production line of laminates was added to meet demands along with the introduction of barcode system in the laminates division.

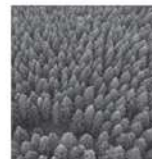

2012

A 52,000 sq. ft. modular expansion

2012 marked expansion of the Modular business. Spread over 52,000 sq. ft., the facility has been equipped with state-of-the-art machinery which cater to board furniture and home furniture requirements.

2012

A green initiative

A secondary ETP Plant was Commissioned in 2012, which has enabled us to recycle over 10 lac litres of water/month, thereby making laminate unit a zero discharge unit.

2013

The complete furniture solution provider

In October 2013, Durian forayed into the business of doors. It started manufacturing Pre-Hung doors.

Hickory, a new brand of Plywood was born in 2013.

2014

A niche solidwood product for a niche market

To cater to a niche market, Durian started manufacturing solid wood products.

2015

Going Digital

Durian ushered into a new phase of digital expansion, carrying forward their commitment to enhance the customers' experience. This made all their furniture products available to customers through their very own e-commerce platform www.durian.in.

2015 also saw the launch of EPH (Germany) certified Exterior Cladding laminates.

2016

The 4th production line of laminates were added

2017

Introduction of leather

After popular demand from the clients, Durian decided to introduce leather in sofa manufacturing.

2018

The year of diversification

Durian diversified even further, so that the end customer could get all their interior solutions under one Durian roof. This year saw the launch of Wink Mattress and Beddings from Durian. A vast range of Decor products & interior design consultation services started. Started delivering to over 700+ pin codes, country-wide. 2018 also saw the launch of Phenolam laminates.

2019

The 1st Retail Door Showroom

Durian has ventured into a completely new business by launching retail door products. Thus making it accessible to all retail customers. Introduced two new business verticals: Wall Panels & Modular Wardrobes.

FURNITURE DIVISIONS

Today, Durian continues to pioneer furniture solutions that empower people to be more creative, connected, and engaged. The company is collaborating with the best in the industry to apply a greater understanding of people—how they think, how they are motivated, and how they create—to a complete understanding of work today. Using these insights, we've formed furniture divisions as follows:

1

READY-MADE FURNITURE

While we import specially curated products, we also thoughtfully craft and manufacture furniture with special attention on quality. Our ready-made furniture collections outlive trends and evolve with changing styles, attention to detail is everything. We debate the intricate details that make our products exceptional pieces for everyday life. It's a labour of love, but we're only happy when a product is good enough for our own homes.

Our catalog comprises of Durian factory-made and imported furniture with a variety of 700+ products that get refreshed twice a year.

From living rooms to workstations, our ready-made furniture variety comprises of the following:

LIVING ROOM

DINING

BEDROOM

OFFICE

DECOR

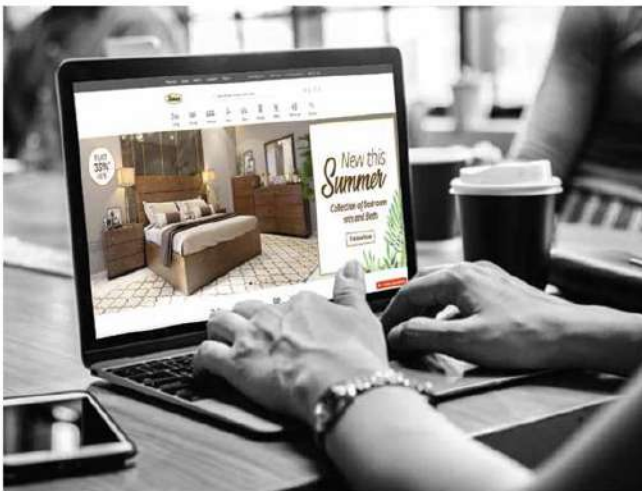

Going Digital:

Since Durian's inception, our customers have been the heartbeat of our business. Which is why we focus on customer intimacy and channel expansion, as the key, long term business drivers.

Keeping true to this value, in 2015, Durian launched a well curated, user-friendly, website for its ready-made furniture. This e-commerce platform offers our customers a great variety of furniture. It gives them what they need for an impeccable designed space - all accessible without the hassle of long queues, limited hours and having to visit the shop.

Customers can browse through our wide range of products, compare prices and check out special offers. That's not all, they can also inquire and chat with stores to understand the product better and clarify their doubts if any. Durian.in makes the decision making process easy and convenient, whilst becoming a one-stop destination for all furniture-related solutions.

Elevated customer experience

We constantly ask ourselves: Is there a better way? That's how Durian Ready-Made furniture remain unique and how we try to make everyday experiences better for our customers.

Design Consultations: Our customers enjoy a complimentary service where our expert designers provide recommendations based on customers' style, space and needs.

White Glove Delivery: With our superior logistics chain, we offer free delivery and assembly of furniture across India.

Customisation: We customise upholstery for all products in leather, leatherette and fabrics of choice.

The Durian Way

Rapid technology evolution continues to unleash dramatic change across the marketplace. To thrive in an ever-evolving market, we've adapted an OMNI CHANNEL APPROACH. With the right mix of retail chains and online services, we've been able to provide a cohesive shopping experience to our consumers.

2 MADE-TO-ORDER FURNITURE

We believe that each customer has a unique style and preference when it comes to furniture. At Durian, we manufacture made-to-order furniture that is completely customized to meet our customer's requirements. We cater to a wide range of clients across residential and commercial properties.

Customer Satisfaction Strategy:

Door Value Chain

We believe that the attention and time we put into the value chain process, give our doors the edge they need. This simple philosophy has been the cornerstone of all the processes and technologies. It has led us to design and deliver doors that are technologically advanced and have become synonymous with high-quality.

Sales Channel

Too often, manufacturers view their service and operations as ancillary businesses, separate from and by no means equal in strategic or operational importance to the "core" product business. At Durian, we don't consider these services as just another function of organisational chart but a lifeline to our business. It is with this thought that we launched a dual model for our sales channels.

1. Dealer and Distribution model

With over 50+ trusted dealers and distributors across India,

2. Experience centres for retail doors

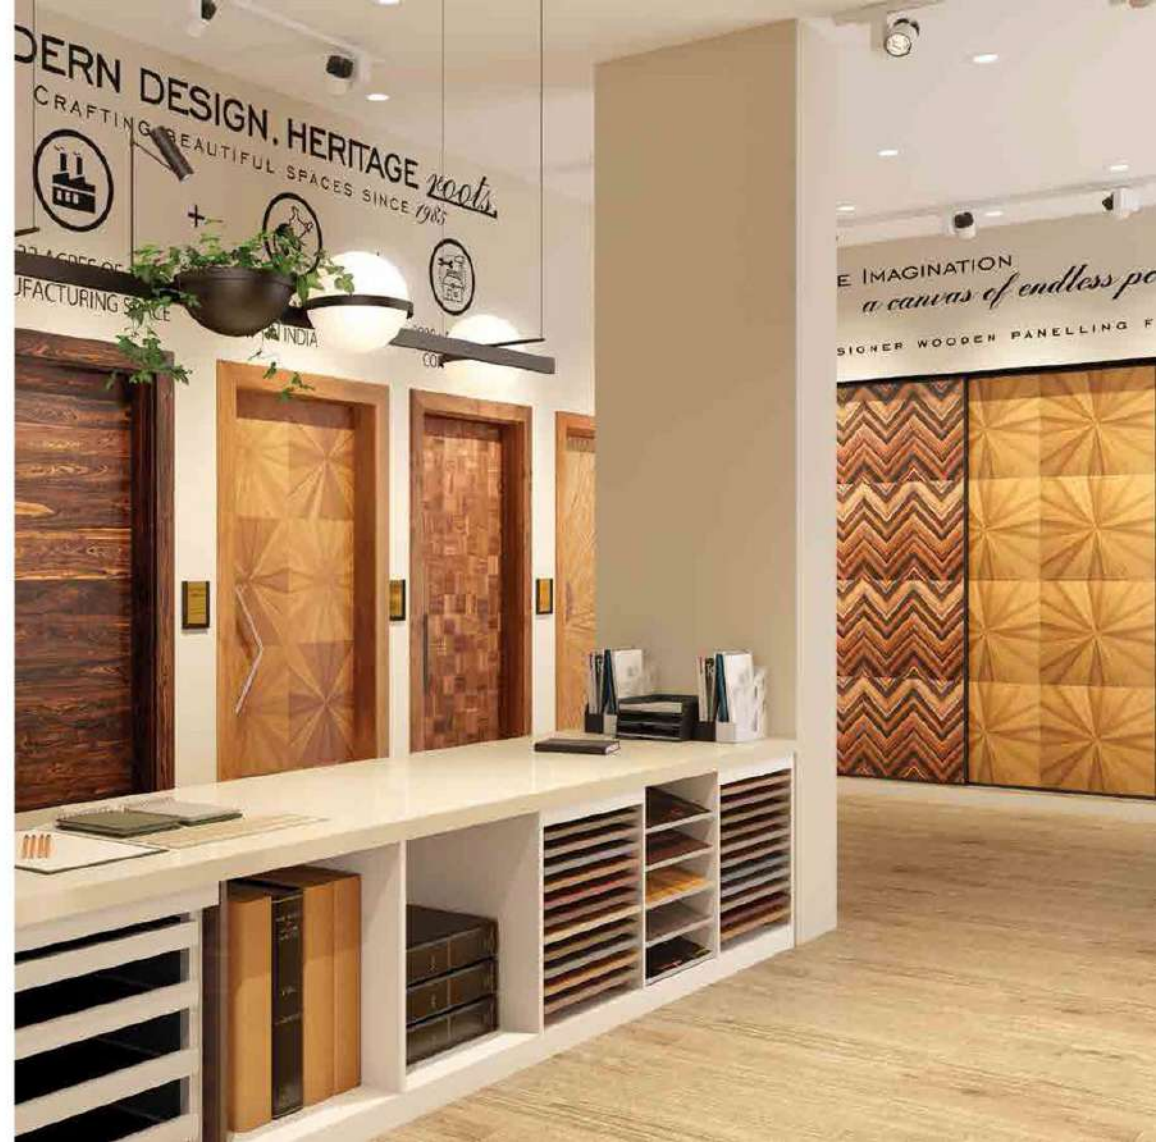

Our experience centres are an environment that inspires our clients' imagination and explores the future. As a trusted and reliable brand partner we seek to build relationships in which we engage with customers and create beautiful solutions in a "live" environment. Our Retail Doors Experience centres provide our clients with an immersive demonstration of Durian's latest products, taking them on a journey of the brand's values and quality. The experience centers allow the clients to get a feel of the quality of doors, get customised designs and as per their budget. What's more, Durian also provides the after-sale-services like delivery and installation.
